- (m) all other matters which by the Act are to be or may be prescribed or regulated by statutes:

Provided that:

- (i) the Syndicate shall not propose or approve draft of statutes affecting the constitution or powers of any Authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion in writing about the proposal; and
- (ii) the draft of statutes concerning any of the matters mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of this section, shall be forwarded to the Chancellor and shall not be effective until it has been approved by the Chancellor.

31. Regulations.— (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the statutes, regulations may be framed for all or any of the following matters:

- (a) courses of study for degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University;
- (b) the manner in which the recognized teaching referred to in subsection (1) of section 8 shall be organized and conducted;
- (c) admission of students to the University;
- (d) the conditions under which the students shall be admitted to the courses and the examinations of the University for the award of degrees, diplomas or, as the case may be, certificates;
- (e) conduct of examinations;
- (f) fees and other charges to be paid by the students for admission to the courses of study and the examinations of the University;
- (g) conduct and discipline of students of the University;
- (h) conditions of residence of the students of the University or the colleges, including the levy of fees for residence in halls of residence and hostels;
- (i) approval and licensing of hostels and lodgings;
- (j) conditions under which a person shall carry on independent research to entitle him to a degree;
- (k) institution of fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;
- (l) institution of stipends and free and half free studentships;
- (m) academic costume;
- (n) use of the Library;
- (o) formation of teaching departments and Boards of Studies; and
- (p) all other matters which by the Act and the statutes are to be, or may be, prescribed by regulations.

(2) The regulations shall be prepared by the Academic Council and shall be submitted to the Syndicate which may approve them or withhold approval or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration.

(3) The regulations prepared by the Academic Council but shall not be valid unless approved by the Syndicate.

32. Amendment and repeal of statutes and regulations.— The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the statutes and the regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making statutes and regulations.

33. Rules.— (1) The Authorities and the other Bodies of the University may make rules, not inconsistent with the Act, statutes and regulations, to regulate the conduct of their business, the time and place of meetings and related matters but the Syndicate may direct the amendment or the annulment of any rule made under this section by another Authority or body:

Provided that if the Authority is dissatisfied with the direction of the Syndicate, it may appeal to the Chancellor and the decision of the Chancellor shall be final.

(2) The Syndicate may make rules, not inconsistent with the Act, statutes and regulations, to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the University for which no provision or no sufficient provision exists in the Act, statutes and regulations.

34. Affiliation.— (1) An educational institution applying for affiliation to the University shall make an application to the University and shall satisfy it that:

- (a) the educational institution is under the management of the Government or of a regularly constituted governing body;
- (b) the financial resources of the educational institution are sufficient to ensure its continued maintenance and efficient working;
- (c) the strength and qualifications and the terms and conditions of service of the teaching and other staff of the educational institution are satisfactory for purposes of teaching of the prescribed courses of studies and training in the institution;
- (d) the educational institution has framed proper rules governing the conduct and discipline of its employees;
- (e) the building in which the educational institution is to be located is suitable, and that provisions shall be made in conformity with the statutes and the regulations for:
  - (i) the residence of students, not residing with their parents or guardians, in the hostel established and maintained by the educational institution, or in hostels or lodgings approved by it; and
  - (ii) the supervision and physical and general welfare of students;
- (f) provision has been made for a library and adequate library services;
- (g) where affiliation is sought in any branch of experimental sciences, due arrangements have been made for imparting instruction in that branch of science in a properly equipped laboratory, museum and other places of practical work;
- (h) due provision shall, so far as circumstances may permit, be made for the residence of the Principal and members of the teaching staff in or near the educational institution or the place provided for the residence of students; and
- (i) the affiliation of educational institution having regard to the provision which may have been made for students by another educational institution in its neighborhood will not be injurious to the interests of education or discipline.

(2) The application shall further contain an undertaking that after the educational institution is affiliated, any transference of, and changes in, the management and in the teaching staff, save in the case of Government Colleges, shall forthwith be reported to the University, and that the teaching staff shall possess such qualifications as may be prescribed.

(3) The procedure to be followed in disposing of an application for the affiliation of an educational institution shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, grant or refuse affiliation to an educational institution:

Provided that the affiliation shall not be refused unless the educational institution has been given an opportunity of making a representation against the proposed decision.

35. Additions of courses by affiliated educational institutions.— Where an educational institution desires to add to the course of instruction in respect of which it is affiliated, the procedure prescribed under subsection (3) of section 34 shall, as far as possible, be followed.

36. Reports from affiliated educational institutions.— (1) Every educational institution affiliated to the University shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the University may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the educational institution.

(2) The University may call upon any educational institution affiliated to it to take, within a specified period, such action as may appear to the University to be necessary in respect of any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) of section 34.

37. Withdrawal of affiliation.— (1) If an educational institution affiliated to the University fails at any time to fulfill any of the requirements mentioned in the Act, or if an institution fails to observe any of the conditions of its affiliation, or its affairs are conducted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of education, the Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, and after considering such representation as the educational institution may wish to make, withdraw, either in whole or in part, the rights conferred on the educational institution by affiliation or modify such rights.

(2) The procedure to be followed for the withdrawal of affiliation shall be such as may be prescribed.

38. Appeal against refusal or withdrawal of affiliation.— An appeal shall lie to the Chancellor against the decision of the Syndicate refusing to affiliate an institution, or withdrawing in whole or in part the rights conferred on an institution by affiliation, or modifying such rights but no such order shall be passed without affording an opportunity of being heard to the institution to be affected thereby.

39. University fund.— The University shall have a fund to which shall be credited its income from fees, donations, trusts, bequests, endowments, contributions, grants and all other sources.

40. Recovery of University dues.— The University or any person generally or specially authorized by it may apply to the Collector for recovery of any sum due to the University and the Collector shall thereupon proceed to recover the sum due as arrears of land revenue:

Provided that the University shall not take action unless the person concerned is given an opportunity of being heard.

41. Audit and accounts.— (1) The accounts of the University shall be maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(2) No expenditure shall be made from the funds of the University unless:

- (a) the expenditure is included in the approved budget of the University; and
- (b) a bill for its payment has been audited in conformity with the statutes, regulations and rules by the Auditor appointed by the Government.

(3) The annual statement of the accounts of the University signed by the Treasurer and the Auditor shall be submitted to the Government within six months of the closing of the financial year.

(4) The accounts of the University shall be audited once a year, in conformity with the statutes, regulations and rules by the Auditor appointed by the Government for this purpose.

(5) The observations of the Government Auditor, together with such annotations as the Treasurer may make, shall be presented to the Syndicate.

42. Retirement from service.— An officer, other than the Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor and Vice Chancellor, or other employee of the University shall retire from service:

- (a) on such date, after he has completed twenty five years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may, in the public interest, direct, or

- (b) where no direction is given under clause (a), on the completion of the sixtieth year of his age.

Explanation.— In this section "competent authority" means the appointing authority or a person duly authorized by the appointing authority in that behalf, not being a person lower in rank than the officer, teacher or other employee concerned.

43. Appeal.— (1) If an order is passed by an Authority, body or officer of the University, other than the Chancellor, and an appeal against the order is not provided under the statutes or the regulations, an aggrieved person may, within thirty days of the receipt of the order, prefer an appeal to the Syndicate against the said order.

(2) The Syndicate may constitute a committee of its members to hear and dispose of the appeal under subsection (1) on behalf of the Syndicate.

(3) If a member of the Syndicate is the officer who passed the order or who is also member of the authority against whose order, the appeal filed, such member shall not hear the appeal as member of the Syndicate or the committee constituted to hear and dispose of the appeal.

(4) The person aggrieved by a final order of the Syndicate, other than an order on an appeal under subsection (1), may, within thirty days of the receipt of the order, prefer an appeal to the Chancellor and the Chancellor may pass such orders as he may deem fit.

(5) The appeal under subsection (4) shall be submitted to the Vice Chancellor and he shall, within ten days of the receipt of the appeal, submit it to the Chancellor with his comments.

(6) No order under this section shall be passed unless the person likely to be affected thereby is afforded an opportunity of being heard either by the appellate authority or by an officer or committee nominated by that authority.

44. Pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund.— (1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, such pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund schemes as it may deem fit.

(2) Where a provident fund has been constituted under the Act, the provisions of the Provident Fund Act, 1925 (XIX of 1925) shall apply to such fund as if it were a Government Provident Fund.

45. Tripartite mobility.— (1) Any officer, teacher of the Government or employee of the University, on the recommendation of the Syndicate, may be directed to serve in any post in the University or under the Government or an educational or research institution in public interest.

(2) The Government may, in consultation with the Selection Board, place the services of an employee of the Government or of any other University or an educational or research institution at the disposal of the University in public interest.

(3) The terms and conditions of service of an officer or employee under this section shall not be less favourable than those enjoyed by him immediately before his services are placed at the disposal of the University, Government, educational or research institution, and full benefit of his previous service shall continue to remain in force until altered in accordance with law.

46. Commencement of term of office of members of Authorities.— (1) When a member of newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under the Act, shall commence on such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing in sub section (1) shall affect the provisions of section 48.

47. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities.— (1) Any casual vacancy among the elected, appointed or nominated members of any Authority shall be filled as soon as may be, by the person or persons or the body who elected, appointed or nominated the member whose place has become vacant and the person elected, appointed or nominated to the vacancy shall be a member of such authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

(2) Whenever there occurs a vacancy in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by the Act, because of the abolition of a specified office under the Government, or because an Organization, institution or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function, or because of some other similar reason, it shall be filled in such manner as the Chancellor may direct.

48. Disputes about membership of Authority.— If a question arises whether or not any person is entitled to be a member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a Committee consisting of the Vice-chancellor, Secretary to Government of the Punjab, Livestock and Dairy Development Department, and Dean who is member of the Syndicate and the decision of this Committee shall be final.

49. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by vacancies.— No act, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing, or making it or by the reason of want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any de facto member of the Authority, whether present or absent.

50. First Statutes.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act, the statutes, set out in the Schedule appended to the Act, shall be deemed to be the statutes framed under section 30 of the Act and shall continue to remain in force until amended or repealed.

51. Savings.— (1) Everything done, action taken, obligations or liabilities incurred, rights and assets acquired, persons appointed or authorized, jurisdiction or power conferred, endowments, bequests, funds or trusts created, donations or grants made, scholarships, studentships, or instituted, affiliations or privileges granted and orders issued under any of the provisions of the statutes, the Islamia University of Bahawalpur Act, 1975 (IV of 1975), the regulations and rules made or deemed to have been made thereunder, shall, if not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the statutes, regulations or rules made under this Act, be continued and, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively done, taken, incurred, acquired, appointed authorized, conferred, created, made, instituted, granted and issued under this Act. Any document referring to any of the provisions of the said Act, statutes, regulations and rules first referred to, shall, so far as may be, be considered to refer to the corresponding provisions of this Act or the statutes, regulations and the rules.

(2) The statutes, regulations or rules made or deemed to have been made, if not inconsistent with provisions of the Act, be deemed to be the statutes, regulations or rules made under the Act having regard to the various matters which by this Act have to be regulated or prescribed by statutes, regulations or rules respectively and shall continue to be in force until they are repealed, rescinded or modified in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

52. Transition.— The Chancellor shall constitute a Chancellor's Committee to exercise the powers assigned to the Syndicate under the Act till such time the Syndicate is constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Act or until expiry of one year from the date of establishment of the University, whichever is earlier.

53. Removal of difficulties.— If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution of any Authority after the commencement of the Act, the Chancellor may, on the recommendations of the Vice-Chancellor, give appropriate directions, not inconsistent with the Act, to remove such difficulty.
